

When a defendant is appearing on a video conference from a remote location, how does the defendant's attorney appear?
(Other responses)

This is dependant on the attorney and the judge

Attorneys are allowed their choice. Have not done third option but would like to.

Either place depending on the attorney and were they feel most comfortable.

Attorney is in the Courtroom

Attorneys not present. Videoconferencing used to interview defendants by Probation Officers

We do not use for defendants, defendants appear in our court in person

Attorney may choose
