

How state courts are using innovative technologies and responsible health and safety practices to resume jury trials

May 22, 2020 at 3 PM EDT

Hosted by CCJ/COSCA's Rapid Response Team

Moderator:

- David Slayton, State Court Administrator, Texas

Panelists:

- Judge Emily Miskel, Collin County, Texas
- Judge Sam Thumma, Arizona Court of Appeals
- Judge David Byrn, Jackson County, Missouri
- Linda Harakai, Marion County, Oregon
- Pamela Wood, Jury Commissioner for Massachusetts
- Paula Hannaford Agor, director of NCSC's Center for Jury Studies

Details:

This webinar will focus on state and local efforts to resume jury trials and grand jury proceedings. Panelists will discuss the development and implementation of new policies to manage jurors and jury trials; the experience of courts in pilot tests of remote jury trials and grand jury proceedings; and innovative ways to ensure social distancing and other public health and safety measures with prospective jurors.

REGISTER HERE

Point of Contact: Nora Sydow

#COVIDandtheCourts
ncsc.org/pandemic