

For which of the following types of criminal proceedings does your court utilize video conferencing?
(Other responses)

Appellate Hearings
Appellate oral argument
At the discession of the judge
Bond Call
bond review
CHANGE OF PLEA HRGS AND FINAL DISPOSITION HRGS
Doctor interviews with patients, bench warrant hearings, probation violation hearings
In custody hearings
Juvenile Detention Hearings
Massachusetts Juvenile Court anticipates using videoconference for all case types. The system is new and is in pilot stage for child welfar
Medically segregated inmates
Mental health hearings
Oral Argument (2)
Other courts in this state use video conferencing; our court does not currently use.
Our Court does NOT utilize the equipment for proceedings; however, other judicial units in the state do post-conviction proceedings where defendant is incarcerated out of state.
Prelim/arraignment def. has to be present
Re-sentencing process
search warrant return
Sentencing
Sentencing, Not Guilty Plea
status hearing from jail
Very limited use throughout state