

For which of the following types of family proceedings does your court use video conferencing?
(Other responses)

---

---

Appellate oral argument

At the discretion of the judge

Child Support

child support hearings

Department of Child services

Judge's Decision. Facility is available.

Juvenile hearings and detention hearings

Limited use as the situation warrants

Pre-trial or 72 hour hearings or Juvenile/detention hearings

remote witness

Terminating parental rights of jail inmate

---

---

Other family proceedings governed by statute

---

---

child support hearings

Cross examination of Child Custody Evaluators – California Rules of Court 5.22j; Title IV D hearings and conferences – California Rules of C

Minn. Gen. R. Prac. 131

Others by Court Rule

Pre-trial or 72 hour hearings or Juvenile/detention hearings

remote appearances

see statute (561.031 RSMo)

Unknown if it is statutory or rule but it is used for anything except juvenile hearings

---

---