

If the video conferencing system fails, do you use telephone conferencing as a temporary substitute?
(Other responses)

AS A PRIMARY

At the discession of the judge

Corrections transports the defendants to the courthouse. Council and interpreters follow.

has not been used, it is brand new

If the judge wishes.

Judge goes to the Jail to conduct hearings

No local IT staff correct the problem or re-schedule the case

no, juvenile would be brought to courthouse for live hearing

No, use portable system.

not sure, usually it is put on hold briefly until technology is fixed, or may be rescheduled not typically transport the defendant

We use the phones only if the prisoner cannot be transported to the courthouse

Yes - for Drug Court.
