

Aside from court proceedings, for what other purposes does your court or state use video conferencing?
(Other responses)

Attorney General intake with arresting police officers attorney/defendant jail visitation

Co. Commissioner Mtgs.

court hearings/testimony

Defense Attorneys use it to communicate with clients at the jail.

Drug Court - Treatment Provider hearings

Family Law Mediation

Has NOT been used for court proceedings

I think we would use it for education and training in addition to oral arguments when we get it

Inmates + Juvenile/detention hearings

Interview defendants in the county jail and regional corrections center

jury duty

Law clerk interviews.

Magistrate Hearings

Meeting with County Prosecutors

meetings

pre and post conferencing staffings and parent visitation state committee conferences

Statewide meetings

Various

Visitors use for AOC meetings
