

Justice Brian Hagedorn

Justice Brian Hagedorn has one position available for a one or two-year term law clerk beginning August 1, 2024, and is seeking candidates with strong writing and critical thinking skills and strong attention to detail. Applications will be accepted until the position is filled. Applicants are required to submit the following application materials: cover letter, resume, law school transcripts, one writing sample (approximately 10 pages—any substantive legal writing is acceptable), and three letters of reference. Applicants may also submit a statement of judicial philosophy which shall not exceed one page. Please submit all materials and direct any questions to his law clerk, Doug Bruno, at douglas.bruno@wicourts.gov.
