We are seeking a qualified, well-rounded, experienced individual to join our team of six court reporters. If you enjoy working as a court reporter, learning something new every day, and striving for excellence, this is your opportunity to work for the Federal Judiciary.

The Official Court Reporter records verbatim testimony of court proceedings via stenotype technology, produces high-quality transcripts, reads back as requested, provides real-time to the Bench for all court hearings, and delivers transcripts in a timely manner. A firm knowledge of your court reporting equipment is a must.

The Official Court Reporter is a highly visible position within the court and requires the ability to work well under pressure and work well with others. This position requires dedication, professionalism, flexibility, commitment, initiative, and discretion.

This position is located at the Federal Courthouse in Seattle, Washington, and requires travel to the Federal Courthouse in Tacoma, Washington or elsewhere, as needed. All applicants must provide their own equipment and have the knowledge and ability to provide real-time translation to the Bench via a reliable wireless connection. Technical troubleshooting is required.

QUALIFICATIONS AND REPRESENTATIVE DUTIES

Applicants must possess at least four years of court experience. A certificate of Registered Professional Reporter (RPR) is required, and Certified Real-time Reporter (CRR) is preferred. CART (Communication Access Realtime Translation) certified is a plus. All Official Court Reporters are required to utilize real-time transcription and must have experience connecting wirelessly. The successful candidate will also possess:

- Strong communication skills and the ability to develop effective relationships and work with a variety of people tactfully and courteously
- Demonstrated ability to work effectively in a team-based environment where the workload is shared
- Ability to consistently demonstrate sound ethics and judgment
- Professionalism
- Strong organizational skills and experience in handling multiple workload demands.
- Demonstrated ability to work without supervision.
- Accuracy and attention to detail.
