The incumbent will report to the Deputy Court Administrator/Jury Commissioner. Functions will include serving as an operations and administrative coordinator (calendar and scheduling management, meeting preparation, logistical coordination), office administration, event planning, financial tracking, inter-office communications, special projects, and other duties as assigned. The successful candidate will be able to manage multiple, varying priority level, projects as needed. The position requires absolute discretion in many matters of confidentiality, and candidates should demonstrate ability and inclination to maintain confidentiality. The candidate will operate independently while keeping supervisors aware of progress. The incumbent will also serve as an alternate administrative support professional to the Court Administrator.

EXAMPLES OF WORK:

The incumbent performs a full range of professional administrative assignments to include, but not limited to:

- Manage calendars and comprehensive schedules for the Deputy Court Administrator/Jury Commissioner.
- Interact with internal and external contacts at all levels of the Court, Maryland Judiciary, and outside constituents to schedule and confirm all participants in meetings.
- Coordinate with relevant members of the internal team to ensure proper communication on schedules.
- Keep Directors/Managers informed of relevant organizational events, to include daily/weekly/bi-weekly/monthly meetings, long-range calendar scheduling.
- Coordinate with the Deputy Director on tasks/assignments/projects that require follow-up from other divisions/agencies to ensure deadlines are met.
- Review documents for official completeness, accuracy, signature, and conformance with style, format, or procedural requirements and guidelines.
- Develop agendas for various meetings (to include, but not limited to Judicial Luncheons, Bench Meetings) and manage logistics, including arranging rooms, refreshments, circulating materials, and other needs.
- Execute meeting and event logistics: coordination of committees, organizing and planning for events, arrangements for external visitors including travel, accommodations and scheduling of the itineraries. Schedule group meetings and related appointments as necessary
- Attend meetings as requested and take meeting minutes.
- Screen all incoming calls and requests, using proper judgment and discretion, and creating independent correspondence in response to inquiries.

- Coordinate travel arrangements and itineraries, book transportation and lodging. Serve as the purchase card holder for travel related expenses; review and process financial transactions expeditiously and accurately.
- Schedule special initiative meetings, Directors/Managers meetings, and other priority or office-wide meetings, as needed.
- Review and coordinate responses on incoming correspondence.
- Track and distribute action items to the appropriate Director and/or Division.
- Edit and produce final copies of formal correspondence, correspondence summaries, briefings, reports and a wide variety of other analytical documents, to include spreadsheets, talking points, speeches, and travel itineraries for signature.
- Develop and maintain an electronic filing system of records; maintain hard copies as needed.
- Willingly and cooperatively performs tasks and duties which may not be specifically listed in the class specification or position description, but which are within the general occupational category and responsibility level typically associated with the employee's class of work
