

Updated Posting for 2024

Judge Alok Ahuja serves on the Missouri Court of Appeals, Western District, in Kansas City. Judge Ahuja is seeking applicants for a full-time law clerk position beginning in September 2024, to serve a two-year term. Law clerks work directly with the Judge in reviewing case files, conducting legal research, recommending case dispositions, attending oral arguments, and drafting judicial opinions.

Besides strong academic performance, applicants should have significant experience in legal research, analysis and writing (such as through law review work, service as a faculty research assistant, or through clinical work experience). Annual salary starts at $58,000, and increases to $62,500 after the first year. Compensation includes standard State of Missouri employee benefits, including health insurance.

Applicants should submit a cover letter, resume, writing sample, list of 2-3 references, and law school transcript. Applications should be submitted via email to monja.calvert@courts.mo.gov no later than Tuesday, October 17, 2023.
