EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY

JOB TITLE: LEGAL ADVISOR TO THE SUPREME COURT
COMMITTEE ON JUDICIAL ETHICS OPINIONS (LEVEL I – IV)

JOB OPENING: 5420

LOCATION: California

OVERVIEW

The California Supreme Court Committee on Judicial Ethics Opinions is accepting applications for a full-time Legal Advisor to the Committee on Judicial Ethics Opinions. The position is being recruited at Levels I — IV and will be staffed at a level commensurate with the qualifications of the selected individual. This benefited position is a limited term assignment from the date of hire through June 30, 2022, with the possibility of reassignment for an additional one-year term, if budget permits.

Article VI, section 18(m) of the California Constitution charges the Supreme Court with adopting the Code of Judicial Ethics to govern the conduct of judges and judicial candidates.

The Supreme Court has adopted rule 9.80 of the California Rules of Court and established the Committee on Judicial Ethics Opinions to provide judicial ethics advisory opinions and advice to judicial officers, candidates for judicial office, and the public. In providing its opinions and advice, the committee acts independently of the Supreme Court, the Commission on Judicial Performance, and all other entities. The committee relies on and interprets the California Code of Judicial Ethics, the decisions of the Supreme Court and of the Commission on Judicial Performance, and other relevant sources in its opinions and advice.

The committee is authorized to provide ethics advice to judicial officers and candidates for judicial office, and to consider suggestions from the public when issuing formal written opinions, informal written opinions, and expedited advice.

RESPONSIBILITIES

This position assists the committee in:

- Preparing formal, informal, and expedited written opinions.
- Drafting memoranda, opinions, advice, and other documents.
- Reviewing, evaluating, and analyzing pertinent documents, questions, and requests for advice in order to evaluate and assess the ethical issues, and the scope and complexity of inquiries received.
- Researching the applicable law contained in the Code of Judicial Ethics, statutes, constitutions, and precedent.

During the current pandemic, a legal advisor to the committee is expected to fulfill these responsibilities while also advising and assisting the members of the committee using remote videoconferencing, as well as meeting in-person with the full committee when advisable. The ability to act independently and proactively is required.

MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS

Legal Advisor (I — IV)

Level I: Active membership in the State Bar of California and the equivalent of three years of post-bar legal experience in a legal setting such as a private law practice, corporation, government agency, law school, court, or legal publishing company.

Level II: Active membership in the State Bar of California and the equivalent of four years of post-bar legal experience in a legal setting such as a private law practice, corporation, government agency, law school, court, or legal publishing company.

Level III: Active membership in the State Bar of California and the equivalent of six years of post-bar legal experience in a legal setting such as a private law practice, corporation, government agency, law school, court, or legal publishing company.

Licenses and Certificates:

Active membership in the State Bar of California.

Desirable Qualifications:

Exceptional research, analytical, and writing skills. Experience and familiarity with appellate practice. Mature and sound judgment. Ability to work cooperatively with the members of the committee and its staff and with other court staff. Ability to discuss issues thoroughly and to work independently while welcoming substantial supervision and editing of one's work product. Ability to work on multiple projects and meet deadlines. Broad and practical knowledge of the law, including working knowledge of both criminal and civil law.

Additional desired qualifications:

- Legal experience related to ethics.
- Knowledge and understanding of the California Code of Judicial Ethics and related judicial ethics issues.
- Ability to write collaboratively with a large group of individuals.
- Experience working and communicating effectively with judicial officers.
- Experience working for a court or the judicial branch.
- Experience providing legal analysis and advice.

SUPPLEMENTAL QUESTIONNAIRE for
LEGAL ADVISOR TO THE
SUPREME COURT COMMITTEE ON JUDICIAL ETHICS OPINIONS

The position of Staff Attorney/Legal Advisor to the Supreme Court Committee on Judicial Ethics Opinions involves assisting the committee in the research and drafting of judicial ethics advisory opinions for judicial officers, candidates for judicial office, and the public, including drafting formal written advisory opinions that are noticed for public comment. Extensive independent research, analysis, and appellate level writing on complex judicial ethics issues is required.

In order to better assess the qualifications of each applicant, we ask that you respond to the following questions.

1. How does your professional background demonstrate exceptional appellate writing skills?
2. Discuss your ability to work independently while receiving feedback and editing of your written work, including any public writing you've done.
3. Do you have professional experience with providing written advisory opinions, and how does that experience compare with writing advocacy briefs or decisional opinions?
4. Provide details of any professional work you've done for the courts and judicial officers, or with judicial ethics.
5. What about the committee's work interests you in this position?
6. Please provide a writing sample, including a brief description of your authorship responsibilities and level of participation in the writing process.
7. Please provide your date of admission to the State Bar of California.
