Where do you look for the latest trends in state courts?

Trends in State Courts 2014

Special Focus

Juvenile Justice and Elder Issues
Trends in State Courts

Trends in State Courts is an annual, peer-reviewed publication that highlights innovative practices in critical areas that are of interest to courts, and often serves as a guide for developing new initiatives and programs and informing and supporting policy decisions. Trends in State Courts is the only publication of its kind and enjoys a wide circulation among the state court community. It is distributed in hard copy and electronically.

Submissions for the 2015 edition are now being accepted. Please e-mail abstracts of no more than 500 words by October 15, 2014 to Deborah Smith at dsmith@ncsc.org. Abstracts received after this date are welcome and will be considered for later editions.

Visit the Trends in State Courts website at www.ncsc.org/trends for this year’s Trends in State Courts online, additional online Trends articles not included in the print edition, and more detailed submission guidelines.

To view Trends and related materials scan this code.